

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE SELF-REPRESENTED LITIGANT VISITATION PACKET

DEFENDANT

The Plaintiff is the parent who wants visitation and files the case with the Court. The Defendant is the other parent or person with custody of the child or children, also known as the custodial party. The instructions in this packet are for the Defendant.

WARNING: You are strongly encouraged to seek the advice of an attorney before filing any legal matter. This packet is designed to provide information and forms to people who are representing themselves in court. If you proceed without an attorney, it may negatively affect your legal rights. If you are unsure whether to proceed, or have questions about these forms or your legal rights, please consult an attorney. Please note that clerks of court, court staff, and judges may give you information about the court and its procedures but cannot give you legal advice.

DISCLAIMER: The information in this packet is not legal advice and cannot replace the advice of competent legal counsel licensed in your state. Visitation laws vary from state to state and the information contained in this packet is specific to South Carolina. Please note that the information contained in this packet is subject to change. Before filing, make sure that you have the most current version at www.sccourts.org.

The information in this packet is intended for use by parents seeking visitation and is not intended for use by grandparents or other relatives seeking visitation. It is recommended that a grandparent or other relative seek advice from an attorney to seek visitation.

The following instructions will help you file an Answer for visitation in South Carolina without an attorney. This is called pro se or self-represented litigant (SRL). While the self-represented litigant may not incur the attorney expense, someone acting without an attorney does not have the expert guidance that an attorney can provide. The other party may choose to hire an attorney. Depending on the outcome, you may be required to pay the other party's attorney's fees and costs.

If you do not know an attorney who can assist you, you may call the South Carolina Bar's Lawyer Referral Service at 1-800-868-2284 and ask for a Family Law attorney in your county. Members of the South Carolina Bar's Lawyer Referral Service have been in practice for more than 3 years, are in good standing, have provided proof of malpractice insurance, and have agreed to provide a 30 minute consultation for no more than $50. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may contact South Carolina Legal Services (SCLS) through the Legal Aid Telephone Intake Service at 1-888-346-5592. Please note that to qualify for a legal aid attorney through SCLS, your income must not be more than 125% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines.

When it is time for the hearing, the Courtroom Deputy will call the Plaintiff's name. At that time, enter the courtroom and wait for instructions. The Plaintiff will present his/her case first. You should only speak when asked to do so. You will have the opportunity to question the Plaintiff and witnesses. After the Plaintiff and witnesses have testified, you will be given an opportunity to testify and present witnesses for your case. Before you begin, you will be sworn in.

Limited visitation may be only a couple of hours at a time, no overnight visits, or held in a public place (fast food restaurant, DSS, etc.). Supervised visitation means that a third party (friend, relative, etc.) must be present at all times when the Plaintiff visits with the child(ren). If you and the Plaintiff agree on a person who is willing and able to supervise, you can tell the Judge. If you cannot agree on a person, the Judge will pick someone for you.

The Judge may stop you from time to time to ask you a question. Listen carefully, and answer the questions the Judge asks you. If you have documents you want the Judge to see, hand the original and a copy to the Courtroom Deputy who will give the original to the Judge and a copy to the Plaintiff. At the end of the hearing, the Judge may tell you the decision and sign an order or state that a decision will come later. The Clerk of Court will provide you and the Plaintiff or the Plaintiff's attorney with a copy of the order. If the Judge does not sign the order at the hearing, a copy will be mailed to you.
